PSI CHAPTER: HONORING OUR PAST, BUILDING OUR FUTURE

CHAPTER HOUSE ADDITION NEARLY COMPLETE; CAPITAL CAMPAIGN CONTINUES

Phase One of the expansion and renovation of Psi's Chapter House is nearly complete. The two-story 3,000 square foot addition includes a large multipurpose social space on the lower level which opens to a new outdoor terrace for entertaining. The first floor of the addition features a large Chapter Room and adjacent patio for receptions. Since the fall edition of this newsletter, new bathroom facilities have been completed, walls have gone up, a roof has been installed (complete with cupola), and electrical, heating, air conditioning, and plumbing systems have been installed. The construction team, led by Bret Holden '83, pushed to get the side patio, rear terrace, and sidewalks poured before cold weather arrived. Inside, carpenters framed walls, built stairways, insulated walls, and installed new drywall and flooring. A paved driveway and landscaping will follow as the project moves to completion later this spring. Mike Christian '77 continues to provide essential building materials through his company, Massey Builders Supply Corporation, in Richmond, Virginia. Most recently, all of the windows and doors Mike provided have been installed, giving the new addition a finished look. With the brick masonry complete, it is apparent that the design standards, set by the House Corporation Board of Directors, have produced a handsome and architecturally correct addition that complements the fine design of the nearly 100-year-old Chapter House at 608 Preston Place.

The House Corporation Building Committee, consisting of Don Sours '58, Steve Herbert '68, Dick Dyas '67, Jeff Stith '81, Tom Washburn '70, and Michael Guthrie '75, meet monthly to review progress with Bret Holden '83 and his team and to coordinate activities to support the construction efforts. Under the Committee's guidance, a variety of successful Homecoming weekend events were held (see article on page 5), while plans are in the works for a formal dedication of the new Chapter Room on Friday, April 28, 2017, at 5 p.m. The room will be dedicated in memory of Rick Donlan '68 and Glenn Kirwin '83. The families and Psi Brothers have worked tirelessly to raise funds to support this project. Also in the works is an effort by Psi Brothers to raise sufficient funds to dedicate the new side patio in memory of Jim Evans '77.

The finish line for Phase One is in sight. Phase Two, the total renovation of the existing Chapter House, will commence after the House Corporation Board of Directors is satisfied that sufficient funds have been raised to cover its cost. Our Capital Campaign Committee believes we have the ability to raise the additional $500,000 needed to meet our campaign goal of $2,000,000. To get there, we need the help of Psi Brothers across all classes to improve our participation rate, which stands today at approximately 20%. That means 221 Brothers have contributed, and nearly 800 Brothers have yet to do so.

Please note the distribution of contributions by class included in this newsletter. There are a number of classes that have gone "above and beyond" in fundraising, and we are truly grateful for their efforts and leadership. Classes not listed have not yet participated. If you are a member of a class with limited participation, we hope to hear from you. We would also like to hear from you if you know members of those classes who were leaders or who could now support this campaign (please e-mail Steve Herbert or Bret Holden at the e-mail addresses listed below). A pledge of $500 per year for five years will get your name on the donor wall in the new Chapter Room, honoring all who have participated in the campaign at the $2,500 level or above. A pledge form is enclosed for your convenience.

To all 221 of our Brothers who have made contributions to the campaign, we say thank you! As you can see from the photos in this newsletter, your support for the Sigma Chi fraternity at the University of Virginia is making this project a reality. We invite all Brothers to participate in the Capital Campaign and to join us for the dedication event on April 28, 2017.

Invests in the Future of Psi Chapter

Alumnus Carries Life Lessons from Sigma Chi

For Chris Accashian '97, Sigma Chi initially struck him as a good group of guys from all walks of life. As he contemplated becoming a member of the Greek system at U.Va., he realized that, unlike other fraternities, Psi was more than just a fraternity. "They were more about lifelong bonds and principles. It's for this reason that I continue to stay connected, because my values as an individual are so closely aligned with what Sigma Chi is all about," Chris says. "I realize that more and more as I get older, I work to instill those same values in my children."

of leadership, service, honor, character, and personal responsibility."

Aside from the life lessons Chris learned from Psi Chapter, he has many fond memories of his Brothers. Chris will never forget hanging out in the "wookie hole" with Sean Ozbolt '97; the many basketball pickup games at the Sigma Chi half court; and preparing his world famous steak and snake chili in the basement kitchen with chili cook-off partner Trap Kloman '97. "Charlottesville remains one of my favorite places on earth and I always enjoy going back to reminisce and relive fond memories through familiar places," Chris says. "At the same time, I enjoy seeing the continuous investment the University makes in the upkeep of the Grounds."

Chris is the CEO of Bon Secours St. Francis Medical Center in Richmond, Virginia. He is responsible for all aspects of daily operations, strategy, and employee and physician relations. It is the "deep sense of personal responsibility" embedded in the principles of Sigma Chi that resonates best with him and his career. "Service and servant leadership are central to who I am and what I do," Chris says. "Being in Sigma Chi helped me to reinforce the importance

Much like the University's commitment to the upkeep of its historic buildings and property, Chris understands the necessary financial investment we all must make in maintaining the Psi Chapter House. "Sigma Chi brought us together and, as a result, added unbelievable joy to my life," Chris says. "I thought it was important to recognize and appreciate that in a tangible way by giving back. I especially enjoy the thought of one day taking my son to our Sigma Chi Chapter House and sharing memories of my time at 608 Preston Place."

Chris and his Psi Brothers have stayed strongly connected over the years. Each year they get together for a "destination draft" for their fantasy football league. Weddings and vacations have also kept him and his Brothers together. "The men I met as a Sigma Chi continue to shape me in who I am today," Chris says. "I'm a better person because I shared formative years with authentically good people who were also intelligent and loved to have a lot of fun!"

Chris and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Henrico, Virginia, with their two children, James and Lucy. In Chris's spare time he enjoys trying to figure out the maddening game of golf, traveling, and spending time with his family. You can contact him at: caccashi@gmail.com.

PSI BROTHERHOOD REMAINS STRONG Undergraduates Dedicated to High GPA, Solid Campus Involvement

Psi of Sigma Chi had a very successful 2016 fall semester. Our Chapter upheld all the requirements of the Jordan Standard by maintaining excellent grades, participating in many forms of philanthropy, dedicating ourselves to recruitment, and maintaining a great relationship with our Alumni.

The Brotherhood was able to maintain one of the highest GPAs in the IFC, as each of us has been actively seeking new ways to excel as a student. Within our house, there is a great sense of dedication and motivation toward our academics, with each Brother inspiring another to put his maximum effort into his studies.

Our Derby Days philanthropy raised $29,000 in the spring, but that was not the only way our Brothers gave back to our community. This semester, our Counsel-Elect, Robert Raiola '17, organized the second annual Homers for Hoos philanthropy, while the Brotherhood also continued their support for other Greek organizations in their philanthropy events. For example, for the second straight year, we had more participants in the Alpha Phi Thankful 5K than any other fraternity. Looking to the future, our new Community Outreach Chairman, Eric Anderson '19, is in the planning stage of starting a new fall philanthropy event that will be directly associated with Sigma Chi.

The Psi Chapter also has several Brothers who hold leadership positions within U.Va. organizations such as Madison House, Interfraternity Council –Judiciary Committee, the Honor Committee, One Goal, Pancakes for Parkinson’s, Camp Kesem, and many others.

Throughout the semester, we hosted several successful Alumni and parent events. In October, we hosted our annual Dads’ Weekend where we played golf, went to a U.Va. football game, and had an overall great weekend. One of our most successful Alumni events was Young Alumni Reunion Weekend where it was great to catch up with some of our recently graduated Brothers.

The Psi Chapter is looking forward to Phase One of our house renovations being completed at the beginning of the 2017 spring semester. Our Brotherhood would again like to thank all our Alumni for their support and hope to see each one of you in the spring to “check out” our newly renovated Chapter House.
