CAPITAL CAMPAIGN PHASE 2

Capital Campaign Phase 2 activity has shifted to renovating the main house with new dining and kitchen facilities, adding four bedrooms and new bathrooms to accommodate up to 22 residents, and improving the site design to include more parking and landscaping that complies with city standards.

We have worked with our architect and have now finalized the plan. New whole-house HVAC and electrical systems, as well as an energy-efficient design, will enhance the sustainability of the completed facility and increase its operating efficiency. The newly completed Chapter Room and social space have created a separation from the future living space, which will increase the longevity of our restoration. The total project (Phase 1 plus Phase 2) is estimated to cost $2,250,000. Our Capital Campaign has now achieved over $1.7 million in pledges, and Phase 2 fundraising has resulted in almost $100,000 in new pledges.

We have also solicited 5-year era leads and year leads to help with this effort. The list of era and class leaders can be found on page 2. Feel free to reach out to them with questions, suggestions, and – most importantly – donations. And if you notice an era or year gap and are willing to help, please let Jim Mallon know.

Below is a snapshot of overall Era Campaign pledges to date.

On October 13, the House Corporation Board of Directors met for its annual meeting. Steve Herbert presented the Building Committee report and the Board of Directors approved engaging Martin-Horn as our contractor and authorized the Building Committee to finalize cost negotiations with Martin-Horn with a goal of contracting with them by January 2019. We anticipate renovations and new construction will commence next spring. The Building Committee and Chapter Advisor were also tasked to work with the Chapter to develop a transition plan for the summer/fall of 2019.

FINDING BALANCE AT SIGMA CHI

Ted Stimson '98 Gives Back to Psi Chapter

Despite attending a large public high school in Indianapolis, Ted H. Stimson '98 was intimidated coming to UVA without knowing a soul. This motivated him to go through fraternity recruitment and meet people on the Grounds. "It was not a forgone conclusion that I would pledge somewhere, but I had a lot of fun and quickly bonded with the guys at Psi Chapter," Ted recalls. "Sigma Chi gave me a much-needed social education that I don't believe would have been nearly as good anywhere else."

Ted lived in the Chapter House his 2nd and 3rd years, followed by Ash Tree apartments his 4th year with several Brothers as neighbors. Some of his favorite memories include living on the third floor of the Chapter House with Sean Ozbolt '97 and a semester when the Brothers played a full season of Super Tecmo Bowl on Mike Flowers' '97 Super Nintendo. Ted also served as Quaestor and Annotator as an undergraduate and advises current undergraduates to find a balance between academics and social life. "I worked really hard to get into UVA, to the detriment of other aspects of life," he noted. "Thankfully, I found much more balance between work and play at Sigma Chi and was much happier as a result! Finding balance is a crucial life skill."

Ted remains close to several pledge Brothers and participates in the "Damn We Miss Poindexter" fantasy football league, which includes a group of 18 Brothers who meet in person annually to catch up. His long distance relationship with Sigma Chi and devotion to the Chapter inspired him to give back by supporting the Honoring Our Past, Building Our Future campaign. "Psi gave me great friendships and a truly memorable college experience," he said. "I met impressive people from diverse backgrounds who have gone on to be really successful in life."

Ted wanted to support the capital campaign, and notes that the renovation pictures look incredible. "The Chapter House wasn't in the best shape during my years, but without a physical house, my experience wouldn't have been possible. I want others to have that same chance, and having a Chapter House is essential." Ted encourages anyone who valued their time in the house to contribute in whatever way they can. "Don't worry about the amount. Every dollar matters and will make a difference to future Psi Brothers. Giving back is so important."

Ted lives in Columbus, Ohio, where he works as a senior vice president at Rockbridge Capital, a private equity firm investing in hotels in the U.S. Ted and his wife, Katie, have a 3-year-old son and 4-month-old daughter. "With two young kids and a full work schedule, I don't have much spare time nowadays," Ted stated, "but I am an avid UVA sports fan in Buckeye country and have enjoyed the basketball team's resurgence!" You can reach Ted at tstimson@gmail.com.

Psi Chapter Receives the 2018 Gold Outstanding House Corporation Award

Psi Chapter of Sigma Chi House Corporation has recently received the 2018 Gold Outstanding House Corporation Award from Sigma Chi International. This award is presented each year to House Corporations that demonstrate excellence in house corporation best management practices. President of the House Corp., Jim Moore, Psi '68, remarked: "This is not an award handed out casually and represents recognition from International that we have met the fraternity's highest standards for operation. The tangible results of our organization's performance are visible in the magnificent Chapter Room, social room, and outdoor terraces addition. We are now poised to raise money to renovate 'the old house'."

THANK YOU, GENEROUS PSI BROTHERS, FOR CONTRIBUTING $1,723,536

CHAPTER ETERNAL

James ("Jim") Palmer '60, a lifelong resident of Arlington, Virginia, passed peacefully in his sleep at his home on May 8, 2018. He was a graduate of Washington-Lee High School, class of 1955, and the University of Virginia, class of 1960, where he was a member of Psi Chapter. He is survived by his loving wife of 56 years, Virginia Knight Palmer, and five children, 15 grandchildren, and many dear family and friends. In lieu of flowers, donations in Jim's memory may be made to: The Psi Chapter of Sigma Chi (in Memory of James Palmer '60).

John Millar '85 of Cobham, Surrey, England, entered Chapter Eternal on September 12, 2017. He was born in Fairfax, Virginia, to Thomas and Ann Millar. John married his wife, Gretchen, in 1988 in Sydney, Australia. Survivors include his mother, Ann Millar, of Fairfax, Virginia; his wife, Gretchen, daughter, Cameron and son, Patrick, of Cobham, Surrey; his sister, Lorine Stovall, of Fairfax, Virginia, and his brothers, Kenneth and James Millar, of Atlanta, Georgia. John had a distinguished career in corporate finance and capital markets, from 1990 to 2009 for Merrill Lynch in London and most recently as the global head of primary markets for the London Stock Exchange Group. He received his B.S. in Commerce from the University of Virginia in 1985 and his MBA from Stanford University. John will be remembered for his extraordinarily sharp intellect balanced with a quick and wry humor. John will also be remembered for his generosity and kindness. John loved fine woodworking, reading, skiing, shooting and hiking just about anywhere in the world, including Mt. Kilimanjaro.

Psi Chapter Stays Involved on and off Grounds Brothers Maintain Academic and Philanthropic Excellence

*Bill Nixon '70, Nathan Shirley '20, Dave Holmes

This semester, the Brothers of the Psi Chapter of Sigma Chi have stayed active in numerous student organizations across Grounds while maintaining our commitment to academic excellence. Over a dozen Psis commit five or more hours a week to community service through the Madison House programs. One of our Brothers, Matthew Hecker '19, is the President of OneGoal, a philanthropy that donates athletic equipment to impoverished villages in Honduras and Mexico. Psis have also been excelling in athletics, with Grayson Bubrosky '19 being named captain of the squash team and competing against nationally-ranked competition alongside his brother, Killian. This semester, seven Psi Brothers are playing on the club lacrosse team, which is the reigning club lacrosse national champion. In intramural sports, the Psi Chapter hopes to extend our winning form with a repeat championship in flag football and a "three-peat" in basketball.

As a fraternity, we are continuing our commitment to the UVA Children's Hospital in preparation for our annual Derby Days philanthropy. This semester, we are making a number of improvements to the philanthropy that we believe will substantially increase participation and donation numbers. We hope these changes will help us reach our goal of $30,000 raised for the Children's Hospital next semester. In the meantime, we will be visiting the Children's Hospital and spending time with some of the Miracle Kids at Jump Cville.

We are proud of the accomplishments and contributions that each of our active Brothers has made to our Brotherhood, and we expect to sustain a high standard of excellence in the classroom and in the community. We thank you for your support, efforts, and contributions that help make the Psi Chapter a lifelong Brotherhood.
